1 INTRODUCTION

The FIABCI International Code of Ethics explains the standards of behavior that FIABCI expects of you in dealing in your daily activities and dealing with others.

This Code cannot foresee every situation that might arise. Rather, it identifies guiding principles to help you make decisions consistent with FIABCI's values and reputation.

When a networking organization practices and promotes ethical behavior, everyone benefits. Being honest, forthright and consistent in our dealings with others fosters a positive work environment. An organization that prides itself on integrity inspires confidence in its Members, Officers, employees, suppliers and the wider real estate industry.

From time to time, changes in the business context or regulatory environment creates a need for new guidelines. As a result, the printed version of the Code is subject to change without notice. Any updates will appear in the electronic version of the Code posted on the FIABCI Web site (www.fiabci.org).

1.1 Who must follow the Code

This Code applies at all times, without exception, to all National, Regional and Multinational Chapters (herein referred to as "Chapters"), to all Direct Members and Members of Chapters (herein referred to as "Members"), appointed and elected Officers in the Board of Directors, the Professional Division, the Administration Division, the Young Members Committee, the Regional Committees, the Strategic Planning Committee, the International Relations Division, the UN Delegation, the Prix d'Excellence Oversight Panel and all existing or new governance bodies) as well as FIABCI Headquarters employees.

FIABCI suppliers, partners and sponsors, as well as third parties, are also expected to adhere to the Code when dealing with or acting on behalf of FIABCI.

1.2 Which Laws Apply

As an international Non-Governmental Organization (NGO), FIABCI has Chapters and Members in many countries around the world. As a result, FIABCI Chapters and Members are subject to the laws of many jurisdictions, including nations, provinces, states, municipalities and international bodies, such as the European Union. FIABCI Chapters, Members, Officers and its employees must obey the law in each jurisdiction where the organization operates. If a conflict should arise between the applicable laws of different countries where FIABCI has activities, or between the FIABCI Code and any law or regulation, the matter should be brought to the attention of a FIABCI Headquarters.

1.3 Committing to the Code

Newly admitted Chapters, Members, Officers as well as newly nominated or elected Officers as well as newly-hired employees must sign an acknowledgement that they have read and understood the Code.

Members of the Board of Directors, Officers of the World Councils, the Administration Division and Committees are not only required to acknowledge that they have read and understood the Code, but also that they have neither breached nor are aware of any breach of the Code's provisions.

1.4 Policies and Procedures of the Organization

Each Chapter issues its own set of policies and procedures, in line with FIABCI global policies. Members of Chapters have an obligation to follow those policies and procedures in addition to those described in this Code.

1.5 Upholding the United Nations

FIABCI works with the United Nations since 1954 and holds a special status at the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) since 1995. FIABCI has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with UN-Habitat in May 2017 with the scope of evaluating the engagements of Cities in achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Our Code of Ethics guides all Members and employees to uphold our core values, standards of behavior and commitment to the United Nations principles of social responsibility.

Do not put yourself in a position where there is or could be an obligation to any third party who might benefit from such situation at the expense of FIABCI. Your actions must never lead to personal gain to the detriment of FIABCI's stated organization interests.

Situations of conflict of interest can also arise when you take on outside work that could compromise the diligent performance of your duties for FIABCI. The Compliance Officer oversees the FIABCI efforts to promote an ethical work environment and business practices.

The Compliance Officer shall be elected by the General Assembly and reports to the General Assembly. Before proceeding with the necessary amendments in the Statutes and Internal Regulations, the Compliance Officer shall be elected by the Board on the recommendation of the World President in Office.

Reporting violations

Any Member or employee of FIABCI, or any supplier, partner, sponsor or other third party, who becomes aware of a possible violation of the Code, or of a violation of the law by the Organization or any of its Members or employees, is strongly encouraged to report it. While it is natural to have misgivings about raising such a concern, remaining silent could have serious negative consequences for the organization.

When an Action is Unethical

When in doubt about a decision that involves workplace ethics, ask yourself the following questions. If the answer(s) makes you feel uncomfortable, the proposed action might not be appropriate.

- Is my action in line with the FIABCI Code?
- Is my action legal?
- Is my action honest and fair?
- How would my family, friends and neighbors react if they knew about my action?
- Would the real estate business industry approve of my action?

Who to Contact

If you have questions, need guidance or have grounds to believe that a provision of this Code has been breached, or that you may have breached the Code, you should promptly speak to one of the following:

- your supervisor/ Leadership / FIABC Headquarters

FIABCI Members, employees, suppliers, sponsors, partners and other third parties can also raise concerns with FIABCI's Compliance Officer at compliance.officer@FIABCI.org.

Confidentiality and Anonymity

All inquiries will be handled promptly and discreetly. If you report a possible breach of the Code, you have the right to remain anonymous, and confidentiality and/or anonymity will be maintained. However, it is usually easier to conduct a full and fair investigation of your concerns if you identify yourself and those involved. FIABCI will make every effort to keep you informed about the action taken to address your concern.

You will not be penalized, dismissed, demoted or suspended and no retaliatory action will be taken against anyone for reporting or inquiring in good faith about potential breaches of the Code or for seeking guidance on how to handle suspected breaches.

Penalties for Violations

Failure to respect the letter or the spirit of the Code or the law may lead to disciplinary measures commensurate with the violation, including termination of Membership or employment. Members and employees who break the law expose both themselves and the organization to criminal penalties (such as fines and jail sentences) or civil sanctions (such as damage awards or fines).
